

Passages - Oedipus Rex

If you are to be our King, as now you are,
Be king of living men, not emptiness.

When wisdom brings no profit, To be wise
is to suffer.

Chance rules our lives, and the future is all unknown.

Best live as best we may, from day to day.

Nor need this mother-marrying frighten
you;

Many a man has dreamt as much. Such things Must be forgotten, if life is to be endured.

All the generations of mortal man add up to nothing!

Show me the man whose happiness was anything more than

illusion

Followed by disillusion.
